Dear Mr. Irons:

Your company was certified on May 31, 2014. As you may know, The City of Atlanta's EBO program has been revised to grant certification for five (5) years. Whereas your previous letter noted an expiration date of May 31, 2016, your new certification period has been extended for three (3) years. Your certification will now expire on May 31, 2019. Your revised certification letter is attached and replaces your previous letter.

During the certification period, you are required to submit an Affidavit of No Change every two (2) years in order for your certification to remain current. Please submit the attached form no later than May 31, 2016.

Please contact my office if you have any questions or need any assistance regarding this correspondence.

Sincerely,

Larry Scott, Director
Mayor's Office of Contract Compliance

ANNIVERSARY DATE: May 31

Dear Mr. Lynch:

Your firm has been certified as a(n) African American Business Enterprise (AABE) with the City of Atlanta's Equal Business Opportunity Program (EBO). Your company's certification will last for a period of five (5) years from the date on your original certification letter. Certification entitles your firm to be included in EBO plans submitted by contractors bidding on City of Atlanta projects.

Your company's certification lasts five (5) years; however, it is contingent upon the company maintaining its eligibility every two years through this office. You will receive a notice to submit an Affidavit of No Change approximately six (6) weeks prior to the deadline for submission. The Affidavit of No Change must be completed, signed, and returned to our office before your anniversary date in order to continue your company's eligibility as an AABE.

As a certified firm, you are required to notify the Office of Contract Compliance if the ownership or control of your firm changes or if your office relocates outside of the twenty-county Atlanta Regional Development Commission (ARDC) area. Failure to provide this notification, in writing, may result in your firm being removed from the Equal Business Opportunity Register.

We welcome you to the City of Atlanta's Equal Business Opportunity Program.

Sincerely,

Larry Scott, Director
Mayor's Office of Contract Compliance
